THE growing Importance of the College of NEW-JERSEY, (for the Uſe of which the above Lottery is principally deſigned) is now generally known through every Province of America. It has hitherto ſubſiſted, and been raiſed to its preſent Situation, entirely by the Favour of the Public. In the Centre of North-America, and in a pleaſant, healthy Country, it is well ſuited for the moſt extenſive Uſefulneſs. The Succeſs which has attended the vigorous Efforts already made, to raiſe its Funds, and furniſh the Means of a complete and finiſhed Education, to all who are ſent to it, has encouraged thoſe concerned in the preſent Attempt; eſpecially as ſeveral very judicious Perſons have warmly recommended it, ſignifying their Surprize, that at a Time, when ſo many have taken this Method of promoting public Undertakings, a SEMINARY, of ſuch Importance, ſhould not alſo put in for a Share of the general Benevolence. This, added to the other Schemes for the Support and Improvement of the College, will afford ſo many Friends of that Inſtitution, an Opportunity of contributing with very little Riſk of loſing, and a conſiderable Chance of Gain to themſelves, who would not incline that the ſmall Sums they could ſpare, ſhould appear in a Subſcription Paper.

As a Number of Tickets are already engaged, and many Gentlemen of extenſive Acquaintance have intereſted themſelves in this Meaſure, the Drawing will commence the Firſt Week in October next, in the Town of New-Caſtle on Delaware, and a Liſt of the fortunate Numbers publiſhed, and ſent to the ſeveral Towns and Places where the Tickets may be ſold. The Prizes, after deducting Fifteen per Cent. for the Purpoſes of the Lottery, will be paid by the Gentlemen of whom they were purchaſed.

N. B. These are not included in the Prizes numbered.

20,000 Tickets, at Five Dollars each, are 100,000 Dollars,

Not two BLANKS to a PRIZE.

THE growing Importance of the College of NEW-JERSEY, (for the Use of which the above Lottery is principally designed) is now generally known through every Province of America. It has hitherto subsisted, and been raised to its present Situation, entirely by the Favour of the Public. In the Centre of North-America, and in a pleasant, healthy Country, it is well fitted for the most extensive Usefulness. The Success which has attended the vigorous Efforts already made, to raise its Funds, and furnish the Means of a complete and finished Education, to all who are sent to it, has encouraged those concerned in the present Attempt; especially as several very judicious Persons have warmly recommended it, signifying their Surprize, that at a Time, when so many have taken this Method of promoting public Undertakings, a SEMINARY, of such Importance, should not also put in for a Share of the general Benevolence. This, added to the other Schemes for the Support and Improvement of the College, will afford so many Friends of that Institution, an Opportunity of contributing with very little Risk of losing, and a considerable Chance of Gain to themselves, who would not incline that the small Sums they could spare, should appear in a Subscription Paper.

As a Number of Tickets are already engaged, and many Gentlemen of extensive Acquaintance have interested themselves in this Measure, the Drawing will commence the First Week in October next, in the Town of New-Castle on Delaware, and a List of the fortunate Numbers published, and sent to the several Towns and Places where the Tickets may be sold. The Prizes, after deducting Fifteen per Cent. for the Purposes of the Lottery, will be paid by the Gentlemen of whom they were purchased.

Orders for Tickets will be complied with, by applying to Richard Stockton, Jonathan Serjeant, Esqrs. or Mr. Enos Kelso, at Prince-Town; to William P. Smith, William Livingston, or Robert Ogden, Esqrs. at Elizabeth-Town, New-Jersey; to Messrs. Broom and Co. at New-York; George Bryan, and Joseph Read, Esquires; Doctors William Shippen, John Redman, or Robert Harris, Messrs. Andrew Hodge, Gunning Bedford, William Henry, John Bayard, Isaac Snowden, Jonathan B. Smith, William Semple, Robert Paisley, or William and Thomas Bradford, of Philadelphia; Mr. David Walker, in New-Port, on Potowmack, Maryland; Mr. Archibald M'Call, in Tappahannock; Mr. John Talliaferro, in Fredericksburg; and Mr. William Holt, Williamsburgh, Virginia; or to the following Gentlemen, viz. George Monro, David Finney, John Thomson, and Nicholas Vandyke, Esqrs; Messrs. Samuel Paterson, and David Clarke, in New-Castle, who are appointed Managers of said Lottery, and will be on Oath, for the faithful Discharge of the Trust, reposed in them.

 Letters directed to Messrs. William & Thomas Bradford, in Philadelphia, and left with T. POWELL, at the Printing-Office on the Bay, near the Exchange, will be safely forwarded, and answered by the first Opportunity that offers after the Receipt of them.

RLES-TOWN, August 2.

THE General Gazette of the 23d paſt, informed us, of the Murder of two Cherokees, upon their Return from the late Congreſs and Treaty at Auguſta, by one Hezekiah Collins, upon Broad-River, who, after having ſhaken Hands with them, and in a friendly Manner ordered Victuals before them, while they were eating, killed them with one Shot. His Excellency Sir James Wright, has therefore offered a Reward of One Hundred Pounds Sterling, to whoever ſhall apprehend the ſaid Collins. The Cherokees have threatened Vengeance if he is not brought to Juſtice.

For ſeveral Weeks paſt, and even to the Middle of the laſt, we had ſuffered the moſt gloomy Apprehenſions of a general Loſs of Grain and Roots, in ſhort of almoſt every Vegetable, throughout this great Proviſion Country, which ſupplies ſo many others. The great Drought in the Year 1752, which was ſucceeded by two terrible Hurricanes in the Month of September, was not ſo alarming as the Proſpect here a Week ago. The Want of Water had not been equalled in the Memory of the oldeſt Man living: In ſome Parts of the Country, Abundance of Cattle had periſhed for Want of it—in many Plantations the People had been obliged to dig for, and even ſet Guards over it, that it might not be waſted—in others, to drive their Creatures daily three Miles, to drink—the Leaves had fallen from the Trees as in Autumn, and the Plants and Graſs in many Places were ſo dried, that there are to this Day unextinguiſhed Fires, by the accidental Fall of Sparks from Negroes Pipes—Hell-Hole Swamp, never before known to be dry, had been continually burning for ſome Time—Travellers on the Roads could not procure Water for their Horſes, nor Drivers for the neceſſary Supply of Cattle for our common Subſiſtance—many Mills had been ſtopt working—and large Quantities of Flour, Corn, &c. were prevented being brought down by the Lowneſs of Santee River—and here, in Town, moſt of the Wells had failed to yield their Supplies, for the common Uſe of Families: In ſhort, never were the People in general ſeen more dejected. But, ſince laſt Thurſday, it hath pleaſed the Almighty to change the Proſpect greatly; abundant Showers have fallen, and they have been ſo general, that we may now almoſt flatter ourſelves, the great Crop of Rice, which has been planted, at leaſt, may be ſaved.

Within a Week paſt, our Harbour, all the Southern Inlets, and even the Cuts, have been filled with Guiph Weed—which is very uncommon. It has ſometimes appeared after ſevere Hurricanes, but even then not in ſuch Quantities.

On Tueſday laſt put into this Port, the Snow Heron, Robert Calder, Maſter, out three Days from Cape-Fear, bound for London; having ſprung a Leak.

On Wedneſday ſailed for Falmouth, the Eagle Packet-Boat, Capt. Nicholls, with the Paſſengers mentioned in our laſt.

The ſame Day Henry Laurens, Eſq; ſome Time abſent from this Province, but now ſoon expected to return, was elected one of the Repreſentatives for the Pariſh of St. Michael, in the Room of Thomas-Loughton Smith, Eſq; deceaſed.

Laſt Thurſday Thomas Oſborne, Eſq; Mr. Peter Stevenſon, Mr. Thomas Hutchinſon, jun. of this Province, Lachlan M'Gillivrae, of Georgia, and ſeveral other Paſſengers, embarked for Rhode-Iſland, in the Sloop Nancy, Capt. Earl.

On Friday returned from Barbados, in the Brigt. Lovely Jenny, Capt. Harvey, in order to reſide here, Mr. Iſaac Peace, with his Family.

Yeſterday arrived in Rebellion-Road, the Ship Jaſon, Capt. Merrick, from Angola—being the 34th Guineyman this Seaſon.

Laſt Friday Afternoon a Negro Man, who, it is ſaid, had been employed to carry ſome Neceſſaries to the Sloop Hope, Capt. Tunnard, lately arrived from Gambia, performing Quarantine in Rebellion-Road, on Account of its having had the Small-Pox on Board during the Paſſage, was removed to the Peſt-Houſe on Sullivant's-Iſland, upon Suſpicion of having that Diſorder. This, we find, to be the only Foundation, upon which the ſeveral Reports have been raiſed, of the Small-Pox being in this Town.

[NUMB. 1963.] MONDAY, AUGUST 2, 1773.

CHARLES-TOWN: Printed by T. POWELL & Co. at the Printing-Office near the EXCHANGE.

Allegorical Deſcription of Human Life.

THERE are only two different roads to travel through the world; that of the agreeable, and that of the uſeful. The firſt is trod by thoſe, who, being willing to ſacrifice every thing to gratify their inclination, addicted to pleaſure, place their ſummum bonum in the imaginary delights of life; the ſecond is frequented by others, whoſe ambition is confined in acquiring perfect utility, even amidſt the tranſitory ſplendors of the world.

The road of pleaſure at firſt ſight commands a moſt agreeable and romantic proſpect, bordered on each ſide with wide ſhady trees, bearing fruits of a lively hue, which pleaſe the ſight, and invite the enchanted traveller; but when taſted, they are found to contain nothing but loathſome aſhes coloured over to delude the ſtranger. A little farther on, there are fountains from which, inſtead of ordinary water, rich and luxuriant wines flow in limpid ſtreams, bordered with flowery turfs; on each ſide of the road ſpacious meadows diſplay a pleaſing variety of the faireſt flowers, but at the ſame time fill the brooding air around with nauſeous odours. At a diſtance fruitful fields and ſhady groves adorn the charming proſpect, which is terminated by numberleſs hills, edged round with tall cypreſſes gradually ariſing in a graceful order. On the ſummits appear magnificent palaces, adorned with fragrant bowers of orange trees, jeſſamines, and an infinite variety of other rare and precious trees and ſhrubs. In thoſe palaces mirth and pleaſure continually prevail: In ſome, tables are ſpread out with delicious meats; in others, beautiful nymphs are ready to receive the traveller with open arms. Here ſtriking muſic delights the admiring ear; their operas, comedies, and other enticing entertainments divert each pleaſed ſpectator. Here a fair is always kept, in which many richly-wrought but uſeleſs toys and trifles are variouſly diſplayed. But whilſt the traveller journeys on, enjoying this pleaſing variety of delight, he perceives not that his courſe is almoſt inſenſibly run, and ſuddenly he feels an irkſome wearineſs ſeize his limbs; then he, languiſhing with fatigue, is irreſiſtibly drawn, through a dreary wilderneſs, towards a ſmall and mean hut, at the entrance of which he beholds a decripid old man, of a hideous aſpect, whoſe extinguiſhed eyes overſhadowed with diſmal gray hairs, inſpire him with fear joined with awe and aſtoniſhment. He however, collecting his drooping ſpirits, enquires into the name of the place, and that of the old man who thus reſolves his doubt: "This ſir, is the country of tears and repentance, and my name is Miſery. I am ſettled here by Heaven's immutable decree to entertain all travellers, who think proper to enter the road of Pleaſure."——The diſmayed ſtranger deſires to know whether there be no other place in the neighbourhood, where he might refreſh himſelf? "Yes, there is one, replies Miſery. Near this place lives my neighbour Deſpair; but here I think proper to inform you, that of all thoſe who left me to go to him, the firſt is yet to return. Therefore either in Miſery's, or Deſpair's manſion, the road of Pleaſure, through which you have undeliberately travelled, is terminated."

The road which leads to Utility, is much more difficult. At firſt the traveller muſt climb up rough and craggy mountains, fenced round with almoſt inacceſſible rocks. In this toilſome labour the faireſt prime of youth and health muſt be totally ſpent. Amidſt thoſe innumerable difficulties, no other company can be found, than Labour and Trouble, to entertain the weary traveller with a repreſentation of the many charms and advantages, which attend thoſe, who ſafely reach the wiſhed-for harbour of Utility. Sometimes they borrow the aſſiſtance of Hope, whoſe ſalutary comfort and encouragement repreſent the end of his journey to be near at hand. His own deſires confirm the ſincerity of that heavenly ſoother, and thus fortified by the charms of her chearful promiſes, he reaches at laſt the ſummit of the higheſt mountain, from whence he beholds a ſpacious plain, in the midſt of which is erected a ſtately palace of an inchanting ſtructure, and ſituated in a delightful ſpot. He is informed that that magnificent building is called Commodity, and that the name of its owner is Reſt. Rejoiced at this happy diſcovery, he haſtes to enter it, and is moſt cordially received by the maſter, who accommodates him with a ſplendid apartment, furniſhed with the utmoſt elegance. Then his companion Hope thus addreſſes him: "At laſt your wiſh is fulfilled, there may you remain till you are called to the eternal joys above." But he cannot remain there long unmoleſted; for ſoon a thouſand cares diſturb his quiet; he begins to form ineffectual ſchemes to poſſeſs himſelf of the palace, and rule over it with uncontrouled ſway. His mind is perplexed with continual projects, which he wants the reſolution to put in practice. In this ſuſpence, all of a ſudden, he perceives Death coming to him, and, with a dreadful aſpect, orders him to pay the debt he owes to nature. At firſt, he vainly endeavours to oppoſe that dread decree, bitterly lamenting his hard fate which compels him to leave his pleaſing habitation which he had attained after ſo many difficulties. But Death, ever inexorable, ſeizes him without mercy, and throws him headlong into the grave; where, covered with his kindred earth, he becomes the food of worms, and to reward his paſt labours, only requires a few words engraved on his tomb, to tell his poſterity, "That there lies a man, who lived wiſe, according to the world."——To conclude, Vanitas vanitatum, et omnia vanitas.
